EMERGENCY CLOSINGS

In the event of a blizzard or other emergency which threatens the safety or health of students or staff members, the decision to dismiss or cancel all schools or any school in the district shall be made by the principal after consultation with the superintendent.

Special arrangements for transportation shall be made for early dismissal. Suitable arrangements will be made by each principal to house and feed students, when because of extreme weather conditions, they cannot be transported home.

Local radio stations will be used to inform residents of the district in the event that school is canceled or classes dismissed early.

If rural conditions are materially different and represent a serious hazard in the view of a bus driver, the driver may contact the superintendent for instructions.
