SUMMER SCHOOL

Within the financial resources available, the Board shall operate summer sessions for elementary students. All summer programs shall be subject to annual approval by the Board and shall operate in accordance with the following:

1. No tuition shall be charged students who are residents of the district.
2. The staff for summer sessions shall be recruited from the district staff insofar as possible.
3. Except as a condition of promotion, no student may be required to enroll in a summer program. However, students who enroll shall be required to attend regularly or shall be dropped from the summer roll.
