ASSIGNMENT OF STUDENTS TO CLASSES

Students transferring to the District schools from private schools, home-based educational programs, or other districts shall be assigned as follows:

1. New resident students in grades 2 through 8 shall be placed in the grade level indicated as appropriate by the records received from the previous school, or from the results of appropriate tests.
2. New resident high school students shall be admitted upon receipt of satisfactory evidence that they have completed the eighth grade. Final high school level placement shall be subject to receipt and acceptance of an official transcript of credits from the student's previous school.

Such placement shall be tentative pending teacher observation of achievement level and an analysis of standardized achievement test results. Placement may be changed later by the school administrator in accordance with what is best educationally for the pupil.
