STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Board recognizes that it has the responsibility to assure students the legal rights, which include due process of law, that are theirs by virtue of guarantees offered all persons under the Constitutions of the United States and the State of Wyoming, and Federal and State Statutes.

First among student rights is the right to a free public school education. First among student responsibilities is to take full advantage of the educational opportunities offered and to adhere to policies and regulations established by the Board and the administration so that the school and class rooms can function properly.
